

Arthur D. Bradford, 94

Arthur D. Bradford of Duxbury died on April 19 at the age of 94. He was the beloved husband of the late Margaret Bradford and the dear father of John Bradford of Duxbury, Jeffrey Bradford of West field, Judy Graner of Marco Island, FL and the late David Bradford. Arthur was the loving grandfather of Brittany, Cash and Kali and dear brother of the late Frances Bradford, Richard Bradford, Paul Bradford and William Bradford. Arthur is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Arthur was a graduate of Duxbury High School. After high school, he went to Gallup's Island to become a radio officer. He joined the merchant marines and spent many hours on the sea as a radio officer. After the war, he went to New Jersey and met his wife Margaret. He moved back to Duxbury in 1958 and went to work for AT&T in Boston.

Arthur was an avid fisherman, clammer and boatsman. He was a scout leader, ham radio operator, president of the Lions Club, assistant harbormaster and a volunteer fireman for the town of Duxbury. After retirement, he enjoyed building wheelbarrows, fishing, traveling and caring for his wife, Margaret.

Visiting hours were held on Friday, April 22 and a funeral service was held on Saturday, April 23 at the MacDonald Funeral Home, 1755 Ocean Street, Marshfield. Interment followed in the Mayflower Cemetery, Duxbury.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Arthur's memory can be made to the Duxbury Lions Club, P.O. Box 1072, Duxbury, MA 02331. For online guestbook, visit macdonaldfuneralhome.com.
